Brother of Cain but I'm not Abel
To see the word from the trees
I'm all at sea, come hell and high water
Before I drown, kiss me please

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around, shake me down

Here comes the sun, streaming through the window Color up the dust and making it shine
The devil's domain is the crystal ocean
Wave after wave, in time after line

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around, shake me down Shake me down, shake me down

Flesh and blood, sister in crime Cross my heart and then hope to die The blinding lights done with mirrors Reach for the blade, kiss the sky

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around

Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake, shake, shake, shake, shake me down Shake me 'round and around, shake me down
