

All The Love

The Moffatts

Broke my heart when you walked away
I miss you more than words can say
I stare at the wall, replaced by the pain
And all that she was, a picture in a frame

Come back is more than I could ask of you
I could never think to let this feeling go and
There is nothing, nothing now
I don't wanna lose you

All the love in the world
Don't mean a thing if it's not from you
And all the love in the world
Na na na
