Everyday

The Moody Blues

Every day
Someone finds a love, they say
And I know it will be OK
Yeah

Love will come
As it does to everyone
Though I know it won't be too easy
Yeah

Some people get love
Then they throw it away
Thow it away
Is what they do
Every day

When love comes We'll have fun Let's run, run Run, run, run

Every day
Someone finds a love, they say
And I know it will be OK
Yeah

'Cause when love comes
Love comes and goes within a day
So when it comes to me
I'm gonna make it stay
