

Patient Patient

The Morning Benders

Doctor, Doctor
Won't you give me the cure I'm after
With a slight wave of your hand
I will be reborn a man

All it takes is a little commitment
I'm a Patient Patient

Doctor Doctor
Don't you give me the pain I'm after
I know I do it to myself
I'm another book on your shelf

All it takes is a little commitment
I'm a Patient Patient

I've taken everything you gave me
But it's not enough
And I'm running out of love

Doctor Doctor
Won't you give me the love I'm after
I know you got yourself aplenty
Won't you write me something steady

All it takes is a little commitment
I'm a Patient Patient

I've taken everything you gave me
But it's not enough
And I'm running out of love
