

Give It Back

The Pineapple Thief

Look
What you've done
Won't you look at me
Just once?

So take it
And sit back
And I'll forfeit
What we had

And I will give it back to you
Yeah, I will give it back to you

Just give me
A little love
The little promises
For what it's worth

So take it
And sit back
I have nothing
Of what I had

And I will give it back to you
And I will give it back to you

What do you want me to say?

I will give it
I will give it
I will give it back
I will give it back
I will give it back
I will give it back

I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you

I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you

I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you

I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you

What do you want me to say?
You want me the first time I touched you?

You want to feel that again?
You want to feel that again?

I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you

I will give it back to you
I will give it back to you

I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you
I'm gonna give it back to you
