

I wish you'd walk away,
I wish that you would stay,
Wish I had the time, to ruin all your time,
Etching out a lie, different to the one,
You need.

Slam another door, feign another war,
Booby trap my trail, knowing it will fail,
Shrapnel for your tears, everyday it nears,
A place where I will cheer, me home

Running around, running me down,
It's easy to see and easy to be,
Turn it around and bury me, so we can

Don't settle up for this,
Think what you will have missed,
An easy time away,
With people who can say,
All the perfect words,
For ever and a day

Settle up for me, the easy pill is free,
Imaginary walls, you will never see
After all you plead, you can never leave,
I will never leave me
Running around, running me down,
It's easy to see and easy to be,
Turn it around and bury me, so we can

Don't settle up for this,
Don't settle up for this,
Settle up for this,
Settle up for this

Running, keep running,
Me down, me down,
Keep running, keep running,
Me down, me down.

Keep running, keep running,
Me down, me down,
Keep running, keep running,
Me down, me down

Down, down, so we can, see
