The Pineapple Thief

it's slipping away
you're catching the day
you cannot regret
what can you expect

whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff

(this time)

what have you become it's over and done you cannot appeal the ending is real whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff

whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff whatever you do it's not enough time trips you out and calls your bluff
