The Presets

Deeper, I know you want it deeper You know you want it deeper I think we're going deeper I know you want it

Faster, I know you want it faster I know you want it faster These days we're moving faster I think we're moving

Further, I know we're going further You know we're going further Yeah, now we're climbing further And I can see it

Warmer, yeah, now you're getting warmer Feel like you're getting closer Yeah, now you're getting so hot Feel like you're burning

Surprise, surprise, you're on your own
It's in your eyes, the love's you've known
And the one's you loved
You lost completely

Darker, outside it's getting darker Yeah, now it's getting darker At last it's getting darker And I can see it

Louder, yeah, now it's getting louder
The noise is getting louder
The night is getting louder
And I can hear it

Stronger and now you're going stronger Yeah, now you're getting stronger You're finally growing stronger And I can feel it

Surprise, surprise, you're on your own
It's in your eyes, the love's you've known
And the one's you loved
You lost completely

So let yourself down tonight Anywhere, I'll take you out tonight Anywhere, put on that dress you like Anywhere

The one with birds on it, they're flying around Now when you're short of breath Go anywhere and when your heart's in pieces Anywhere, I'll take you out tonight
