

Cheated

The Slackers

Evil
Corruptious
Bad minded

Have you ever felt cheated
Broken down and defeated
Stabbed, trampled
On your head
Have you ever felt lost
Beaten down and tossed
Forgotten, passed by
And left for dead

Your friends all smile
When they see you now
You can't tell if it's pity
Or it's spite
Your love has gone
To a distant shore
Gone
In the dark chorus of the night

Have you ever felt cheated
Broken down and defeated
Stabbed, trampled
Shot in the head
Have you ever been bled
By someone conceited
Watched a wedge
Put down between all your friends

And all the jokes seem so empty now
But still so full of pain
Smiles, winks and knowing looks
Are the tools
Of your trade

Evil
Corruptious
Bad minded

Where you gonna look
When you read your last book
And the truth
You ain't never found
And your entourage has gone away
And the future
Man, it just brings you down

Have you ever felt abandoned
Like an old toy wagon
With only three wheels left
To help you go
Who the hell knows
Well, who the hell knows
