

Gomer's Theme

Third Day

In this place
Saw her face
He was more than happier
Made for Him
It's a sin
That she was not faithful

She couldn't be Foolishly
More unfaithful if she tried
He did not care
Wanted her
despite lies and wandering eyes
He deserves the very best
But He loves her none the less

She's forgotten her first love
(Maybe someday she'll return)
He's forgotten that she ever went away
And broke his heart

Lacished on
Silver, gold, anything she needed
Wasted thoughts
Broken hearts
Love was not acknowledged
God only knows
That He has shown her
More love than she deserves

There will come a time
When she will find
That He's not there to give her love
And He'll be gone away
From her forever
