

Drop That Bomb

Tiffany Darwish

Hey...

Oo ooh

Waoh

Don't look now
but guess who's making crazy eyes at you He wants to win your heart somehow but I don't think that boy knows what to do He's so shy
You just might wait forever
if you wait for him
And love could pass you by
You may never have a chance like this again so
Drop that bomb wo oh
Tell him you're in love with him
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know
Grab that boy and tell him
Now's your time
Ain't no sin to clue him in
The boy can't read your mind
Yah yah yah yah yah wo wo wo
The best of love is hard to find and it can slip like sand right through your hand
So when you find that gentle kind You got to walk right up and take it while you can so
Drop that bomb wo oh
Tell him you're in love with him
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know
Grab that boy and tell him
Now's your time
Ain't no sin to clue him in
The boy can't read your mind
Yah yah yah wo
Oo oo oo
A million nights from now when he's looking deep in your eyes you'd say remember how we walked right into paradise
Oh, drop that bomb wo oh
Tell him you're in love with him

Drop that bomb wo oh

Drop that bomb wo oh
(Drop that bomb oh yeah) Got to go

Get up and tell him
Can't you see that I love you baby
Now they're noticing you're sweet smiles
Tell him you're in love with him (Tell him that you love him)
(Tell him that you love him)
Drop that bomb oh yeah
How else is he ever gonna know
Just might wait forever
if you wait for him
You may never have a chance like this again
