

Starting A New Life

Tom Dice

Let it go, let it go, cut the past
I've wasted my time blindly doing what you asked
In all my life you never found time to see
That I was so locked in love - time to break free

I'm starting a new life for me
I'm starting a new life for me
A spark of life deep within, is it wrong to feel right?
I'm starting a new life for me

Let it go, let it go, I won't come back
You can fall on your knees but nothing's gonna change the blast
'Cause all this time I fought for us but you did nothing, you did nothing
I won't regret decisions I've made in life

I'm starting a new life for me
I'm starting a new life for me
A spark of life from deep within, is it wrong to feel right?
I'm starting a new life for me

I'm starting a new life for me
I'm starting a new life for me
A spark of life from deep within, is it wrong to feel right?
I'm starting a new life for me

Oh yes I'm starting, oh yes I'm starting
Oh yes I'm starting, starting, starting
Oh yes I'm starting, oh yes I'm starting
Oh yes I'm starting, starting, starting, starting
