

Come and Grow Old With Me in Colorado

Tom Paxton

Governor Lamm spoke to old folks in Colorado, little darling
Did you hear what the governor had to say?
If you're growing too old in Colorado, little darling
You should die and get out of the way

Come and grow old with me in Colorado, little darling
We'll grow old together me and you
And when we grow too old in Colorado, little darling
We'll do what the governor wants us to

We'll stick our heads in the oven in Colorado, little darling
We'll go out together, you and I
We will each strike a match in Colorado, little darling
We'll blow ourselves Rocky Mountain High
