The Man Who Loves Women

Tom Petty

He's the man who loves women Women, women, women
He's the man who loves women
And fallin' in love everyday

When he sees a senorita
It's a sure thing that he'll heed her
He's the man who loves women
And fallin' in love everyday

But in the mornin' when she wakes up He'll be far away Keepin' his secrets safe Hey hey hey

But in the mornin' when she wakes up
He'll be far away
Keepin' his secrets safe
Hey hey hey hey
Ah ah ah
Babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, I love you

He's quite prepared to mingle Comes on like he's single He's the man who loves women And fallin' in love's just his way And one of these days he's gonna pay For fallin' in love everyday

Oh stay away, he's the man who loves women Oh stay away, he's the man who loves women Oh stay away, he's the man who loves women...
