Don't tell me
A woman did this to you
Candy lies
Candy lies
Candy lies

You touched my hand
I felt a force
You called it dark
But now I'm not so sure

Just stay awhile Stay awhile Stay awhile

Why don't you Stay awhile Stay awhile

Stay awhile

Cause your wild card Boy needs playing Don't believe the lie
Your Dragon needs slaying
Won't you lay here with me
And I will bring
Kisses for the beast

Lay here with me Here with me

Don't tell me
A woman did this to you
Candy lies
Candy lies
Candy lies

When I look back over Documents and pages Ancient savageries

Christened those inflated. Now it has come to light The Gods they have slipped up

They forgot about the power Of a woman's love
Just stay a while
Stay awhile

Stay awhile Why don't you Stay awhile Stay awhile

Stay awhile
Cause your wild card Boy needs playing

Don't believe the lie Your Dragon needs slaying

Won't you lay here with me And I will bring Kisses for the beast Lay here with me Here with me

Don't tell me A woman did this to you

Candy lies Candy lies Candy lies Candy lies Forgive my Candy lies
