Lust

Tori Amos

Hey you gender nectar Sifting through the grain of gold Tripping at your door is that you. Alpha in her blood And when the woman lies You don't believe her Rolling and unrolling Coiling emerging Running free Running through the underworld int your room Is he real or a ghost-lie She feels she isn't hear And the veil tears and rages till her voices are remembered And his secrets can be told Hey you gender nectar Crystalline from the vine You know you'll drink her Rolling and unrolling Coiling emerging Funning free running through The afterworld intoyour room So she prays

For a prankster and lust In the marriage bed And he waits till she can give And he waits and he waits
