Man I Was

Tracy Lawrence

Look at me in that photograph before we were ever us

Long before you found someone else and broke our sacred trust

I hardly recognize myself sure has been a while

Amazing how much my life has changed since I've worn that smile

What happened to that smile

There I am with my head held high my step was quick and my eyes were bright

Back when I believed in love and would lay my heart on the line I don't know which hurts the worst losing you or having to see The picture of the man I was before the fool you made of me

I've wasted time here missing you doubting who I am I can't make you something you're not but I can be me again Oh deep down I know I can There I am with my head held high...

I want to be the man I was before the fool you made of me
