

Prince Of Nothing Charming

Tyler Hilton

Here comes the part where you say, I don't understand you, yeah
And all those little things I never get right
You talk and talk but all that chit chat stuck in lipstick and it's driving me crazy, baby
And I got nothing when you smile like Mona Lisa 'cause I need ya, I need ya tonight
And if walls could talk I'd be the prince of nothing charming and it's driving you crazy, baby

Oh you love like you wanted to fight like you needed tonight
Baby it's beautiful
Oh and you scream like a gun in the night
Yeah you're starting a fight
It's like you don't know
Baby, you're beautiful, baby, you're beautiful

It's ten to midnight and this cheap champagne is wearing off, she's tearing off her dress
God I'm such a mess
And in the dark she's taking shots at my heart
She's got it to an art and this how I fall apart

Oh you love like you wanted to fight like you needed tonight
Baby it's beautiful
Oh and you scream like a gun in the night
Yeah you're starting a fight
It's like you don't know
Baby, you're beautiful

Girl you got soul and I don't mind that you go a little crazy
It's that passion I dig baby, yeah
The world wants your glow but you're the last one to know
Baby you're beautiful

Here comes the part but only you can understand me
Like cigarettes and candy
Baby, baby

Oh you love like you wanted to fight like you needed tonight
Baby it's beautiful
Oh and you scream like a gun in the night
Yeah you're starting a fight
It's like you don't know
Baby, you're beautiful, baby you're beautiful

You're beautiful

It's ten to midnight and this cheap champagne is wearing off
It's time that I confess, god I'm such a mess
