The great flood of tears that we've cried For our brothers and sisters who've died Over four hundred years
Has washed away our fears
And strengthened our pride
Now we turn back the tide

We will no longer hear your command
We will sieze the control from your hand
We will fan the flame
Of our anger and pain
And you'll feel the shame
For what you do in gods name

We will fight for the right to be free We will build our own society And we will sing, we will sing We will sing our own song

When the ancient drum rhythms ring The voice of our forefathers sings Forward Africa run Our day of freedom has come For me and for you Amandla Awethu

We will fight for the right to be free We will build our own society And we will sing, we will sing We will sing our own song
