

Living

Vérité

I'm not too good at living
I always dirty myself up after a vow to be clean I'm all too good at sinking
when my arms get tired

(I'm not too good at) Turning the lights off when nobody's home or giving you piece of mind to make you feel sure

I'm no good at making vows

I'm not too good at living
I always dirty myself up
I'm all too good at sinking
when my arms get tired

(I'm not too good at)
Keeping good company
I'm always alone
But I'd let you inside of me to remind me how I'm better off

I'm no good at making space

I'm not too good at living
I'm all too good at sinking
when my arms get tired
