

Enjoy The Ride

Vicci Martinez

Now here we go again
Back to where the problem started
This time my heart is open
You carry every good intention
So tell me your secrets
And hold you in my arms and listen
There's beauty in the imperfections

And close your eyes my dear
Turn the voices off inside your head
Relax your mind, breath in
Start living for the present moment
Cus all we have is right now
And you may not ever see me again
So let go of any expectations
And take it slow, always enjoy the ride
Cus what will be, Will be
You can't hide
La la la lo
And then well find ourselves
Caught inside the web we're spinning
Too scared to ask for help
We'll go on with this way of living
And never find our strength
Cus its easier to play the victim
Loving is about forgiving yeah

So take it slow
Cus what will be, Will be
You can't hide
And free yourself from fear, sleep tight
And only then should you seek you will finally find
La la la lo
Come one take it slow
And always enjoy the ride
Cus what will be yeah will be you cant hide
And free yourself from fear, sleep tight
And only then should you seek you will finally find, finally find oh
La la la lo
