Tears Will Be The Chaser For Your Wine

Wanda Jackson

Tears will be the chaser for your wine You sit there and tell me how you'd like to be free You're tired of bein' tied down to a home and family You say you miss the bright lights along the great white way Little do you realize the price you have to pay Tears will be the chaser for your wine after you leave this lov e of mine Bright lights and taverns that's where you'll spend your time

And tears will be the chaser for your wine

Before you make up your mind you really want to go Stop and think it over there's something you don't know When the part is over then what will you do When you wanna come back there'll be no place for you And tears will be the chaser...
