

Sum of One

Warrant

When the sun came up today
I asked him please to go away
Something died in me last night
I feel hollow on my inside
We talked until the words
Were yells
You'll never understand me
I can tell
Oh, God I feel like hell
Thow another penny in the
Wishing well

Rain, Rain go away
I don't care much for
The color grey
If I stay too long, hopefully
I'll get washed out too the sea
And drown in my misery
See your face looking down at me
And if I asked you for help
You'd hand me a glass of water

Give me some, Give me one
Who understands my meaning
Give me some give me one
Who won't laugh while I'm bleeding
Give me sum give me one
Give me love
