

I'm Little

Waylon Jennings

Sometimes I look up at my dad
And he looks a hundred feet tall
So if I hadn't learned to yell real loud
He might never see me at all
'Cause

I'm little, I'm little
I'm little so what can I say
I'm little, I'm little
But I'm gonna grow up some day

My mom says where ever I go
I always leave a big mess
And as long as it takes her to clean up my room
She may be right I guess

I'm little, I'm little
I'm little so what can I say
I'm little, I'm little
But I'm gonna grow up some day

Sometimes I think Mom and Dad
Are always pickin' on me
But if you won't tell, I'll tell you the truth
I do a lot more than they see
'Cause

I'm little, I'm little
I'm little so what can I say
I'm little, I'm little
But I'm gonna grow up some day

I'm little, I'm little
I'm little so what can I say
I'm little, I'm little
But I'm gonna grow up some day

But I hope I never do
