Till I Gain Control Again

Waylon Jennings

Just like the sun over the mountain top You know I'll always come again You know I love to spend my morning time Like sunlight dancing on your skin.

And I have never gone so long just for telling lies to you What you've seen is what I've been There is nothing that I can hide a few You see me better than I can.

Out on the road that lies before me now There are some turns where I will spin I only hope that you will hold me now Till I gain control again.

Just like a lighthouse you must stand alone And mark the sailor's journey's end And no matter what sea that I've been sailing on I'll always roll this way again.

Out on the road that lies before me now There are some turns where I will spin I only hope that you will hold me now Till I gain control again...
