

Where You Are

Whitney Houston

I saw the news this morning
And saw your face across the screen
And as I poured my coffee
I picked up a magazine

But as I turned the page and looked inside
There you were again
On these lonely times
They never seem to end
You're too far
I know I should be there where you are

Today I did some shopping
Just had to clear my mind again
I can't stop thinkin' 'bout you
I hopped into a taxi, seemed
In a moment I was home
Home again

But as I turned the page
And looked inside
My heart would not pretend
Oh those feelings
Not those feelings not again
You're too far
I know I should be there where you are

Tossing and turning in my sleep
I can't take being without you now
I'm gonna catch the next plane out
I got to get to where you are
No matter how near or how far
I got to get to where you are

But as I turned the page and looked inside
There you were again
On these lonely times
They never seem to end
You're too far
I know I should be there where you are
