You Will Miss Me When I Burn

Will Oldham

When you have no one, No one can hurt you When you have no one, No one can hurt you

In the corners there is light That is good for you And behind you, I have warned you, There are awful things

Will you miss me When I burn, and will you eye me With a longing It is longing that I feel To be missed for, to be real

When you have no one, No one can hurt you When you have no one, No one can hurt you

Will you miss me When I burn, And will you close The others' eyes, it would be Such a favor If you would blind them

There is absence, there is lack There are wolves here abound You will miss me When I turn around

When you have no one, No one can hurt you When you have no one, No one can hurt you
