

Approaching Lightspeed

Wolfsheim

I try to breathe... I try to think of you...
I don't know if trying will do the silence...
a mirror....
that breaks the light in two

come to me... and with violence we'll discover what will make us free accelerate... we'll try to stand where no one dared to be
we're climbing high, we'll fly away,
we're fearless indeed
when time stands still...
a moment lasts... approaching lightspeed.

we're climbing high, we'll fly away,
we're here to move... we move to stay...
when time stands still... a moment lasts... we're moving on... we're flying fast...
approaching lightspeed.
