

Carpe Diem

You Me at Six

We sat outside till we were numb.
Two Corona's and limes, and our thoughts.
We talked about life and how far we'd come.
It took a while, but we waited for the sun.

Carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the bitter end.

You know when you get old,
You'll look back and sweeten your soul.
You took me apart to see inside.
You took me away to feel alive.
We're California dreaming.

Carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the bitter end.
And oh.
Carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the bitter end.

Oh everybody knows you're a risk worth taking.
Option worth attention.
I can't figure this one out for now.

It's carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the bitter end.
And oh.
Carpe diem till the very end.
I have no regrets.
Carpe diem till the bitter end.
