Swing

Thought you'd be forever the same When did you become so easy to change? Can't like who I won't

No, that's not true, I do know Just can't figure out how to pin down

There will be no unguarded kisses Let go of my hand when they're around They say I'm unsound

But what do they know? They can't figure out how to get down, down

Soon enough I won't care Stay in my arms if you dare You can't romanticize

They are crazy, will only let you down Try to figure out how to keep you down They're all alone, I will keep you down

Down, down Down, down Down, down
