

I almost gave up
I almost got lost
I had too much sadness
And then I felt you
I could almost hear that
You had come to stay

Eeeehhhhh iaia
My litter is mixed race
It's the face of the future when he Dances with joy

I'm going to dance
And give thanks to life
And all the knocks I took
To get such a dear thing
I decided to polish everything
In my life
For you to come home

Today I discovered
That for my whole life
I was waiting for you

If you want
I'll protect you, yes, yes
You don't even have to let me
I'm going to, I'm going to take care of you
When you need me to
I'll let you go, my darling
I just won't ever manage
To stop loving you
