

Oh I know your kind.
You would kill your kin for the right price.
Oil and water are thicker than blood.
Oh I know your type.

Use us to get what you wanted.
You can't finish what you started.
Find it kind of funny how you try to rectify the damage.

Your failure to find compromise.
The walls are coming down.
Will you survive sacrifice or tumble to the ground?

Your lying to yourself.
And to everyone that knows your name.
You play the part of the fool so well.
Oh I know your type.

Use us to get what you wanted.
You can't even finish what you started.
Find it kind of funny how you try to rectify the damage.

Your failure to find compromise.
The walls are coming down.
Will you survive sacrifice or tumble to the ground?

Oh I know your type.

Your failure to find compromise.
The walls are coming down.
Will you survive sacrifice or tumble to the ground?
