Read the writing on the wall Scar across the lips that talk Boldly shrouding all I thought Slowly building a flaw

Fair warning Between the lines Discover I

Thought you knew was their excuse Technique swallowing puke

Sliding down my back a blade Spread her open to betray Lying in the bed you've made All is fair when love is hate

Skin the past what's done is done
Bloody taste I bite my tongue
Tears are old and grey at best
Long for rest
Attempt to refrain slow burn
Stitch shut minds eye
Wish to be oblivious
Time will gracefully numb

Rest from this might teach a lesson Picking scabs can cause infection

Rest. From. This.
