

Riptide

10 Years

I just can't decide what to do today
The ocean comes ashore, but then recedes away
I'm stuck on this giant wave
As it carries me astray

R: I'm caught in a riptide
I'm torn from the inside
As I'm beating against the current
So many memories that I just can't forget
Going through my head
I'm caught in a riptide

I am floating halfway around the world
I'll wash up in your life, then you'll be my girl
I am barely breathing
But you promise you're not leaving

R:

I'm so weary of this yearning ache in my chest
Where will I be in ten years on this long quest

I'm caught in a riptide
I'm caught in a riptide...
