

Please savior of here
Give me shelter from fear
I need answers to this Crazy world that so mixed

With the pain that leaves us
Lifeless and dead-souled
We all need to Break this mold

I'm so sure you'll blame me for this all
What's so wrong you claim to call this love
What's so wrong you claim to call this love

Drips hit the floor
Who cares at all Flesh sheared and torn sleeves hide remorse

Stardom branded skin traps pain within Expectations never reaching

I'm so sure you'll blame me for this all
What's so wrong you claim to call this love
What's so wrong you claim to call this love
