Please, for me, don't you cave in
Or lose sight, otherwise they win
Please, believe your creation
Will breathe life in due time
Otherwise they win

Confusing a ghost
For a brand new cure
You're losing control
End a martyr's cause

You're wondering, once before
So clean and pure
But clarity's hard to keep
Within reach
Your celebration
Left a snake in
And woke the dead
Demons come back for more
To open up the sore

Confusing a ghost
For a brand new cure
You're losing control
End a martyr's cause

From victim to villain we came throwing stones
Using, abusing your own
From victim to villain we came throwing stones
Using, abusing the throne
Using, abusing your own
Using, abusing the throne

Confusing a ghost
For a brand new cure
You're losing control
End a martyr's cause

Confusing a ghost
For a brand new cure
You're losing control
End a martyr's cause

Martyr
