

Woman in Love

10cc

I don't know why it's the way of the world (I don't know why it's the way of the world)

But meanwhile, meanwhile, meanwhile, meanwhile...

You've seen her sway when she walks down the street

Look at her eyes, see the glow in her cheeks

It ain't no secret, she can't hide it away

There's someone special, she's the dish of the day

She's a woman in love

She's a woman in her prime (She's a woman in love)

Look at her face it's a picture

She's a woman in love

She's a woman

This chemistry, you'll never find in a book

No ectochrome's gonna capture this look

These mixed emo's make your senses to real

You've got to be there to feel what she feels

She's a woman in love

She's a woman in her prime (She's a woman in love)

Look at her face it's a picture

She's a woman in love

She's a woman

Why should a woman in all innocence be the one to inspire looks that kill?

I don't know

I don't know why it's the way of the world

Some will win, some will lose but she can't tell

This kind of beauty comes from within

Shouldn't be allowed, yeah it's really a sin

You'd sell your soul for a night in her bed

You're far too late boy, I've already said

She's a woman in love

She's a woman in her prime (She's a woman in love)

Look at her face it's a picture

She's a woman in love

She's a woman

She's a woman in love

Look at her face it's a picture

She's a woman in love

She's a woman

She's a woman in love

Look at her face it's a picture

She's a woman in love

This one is mine
