For Awhile

Living my life without you Something I don't wanna do So please don't walk away And leave me all alone Baby, stay for just a while

R: Why can't you stay with me For just a while Cuz if you leave You'll take a piece of me Why can't you stay With me for just a while Boy, you know you have the key to my heart

Oh baby, girl I don't want you to go You are my heart and soul The reason that I live The one that I adore And I can't stand the thought Of being by myself But I can't see myself Loving no, nobody else

R:

And when ever you need me girl I'll be right by your side I'll always love you Who can love you Why won't you stay with me awhile

R:
