

Let This Go

112

Girl I don't understand, stand the reason why, why you act this way

What did I do, tell me what the problem is

I don't want to see, want to see you leave

Want to let you go, I just want to find a way to work it out

We've been through so much, good and bad times

Girl I did you wrong, you forgave me then we tried to start over

I apologized tried to make it right, so many times

Now I think its time to let this go

R: And even though I love you and you've been with me for so long

And we thought that we could make it work but we were wrong

But neither one of us want to be the first to say goodbye

Baby I think its time to let this go

(2x)

Girl it's hard for me to tell you that it's over

I hate feeling this way

But I know you know things just haven't been the same

We always said that we, we would tell the truth

No matter what it is, can't continue to pretend our heart is in it

I'm waiting for you to see, the reality

We at dead end, there no way to go unless we gonna to be just friends

I love you so much, never thought that I would ever have to say

That I think its time to let this go

R: (2x)

Oh girl

What happened to the love

What happen to the girl

The girl I fell in love with

I never thought I'd been the one to say goodbye

I'm sick and tired of the arguing and I don't want to do it again

Again, woo

R: (2x)
