

Disappear

12 Stones

Paint a perfect of everything I thought that this would be.
But here's the truth, it's never easy.
Strike a match and light the fuse
as everything we were goes up in flames.
And here's the truth, it's gonna kill me.

Facing all my demons.
Leaving them all behind.
I see now you're the reason I don't wanna be here.
So I will move on.
I'll be the last one standing
And I tasted your tears
Now you drown in your sorrow and I'll just disappear.

Tearing all your pictures up
All that's left are wasted memories of me and you.
And this bitter ending.
There must be a thousand ways that we could watch our World come crashing down
But we found one that's gonna kill me.

Facing all my demons
Leave them all behind
I see now you're the reason
I don't wanna be here
So I will move on, I'll be the last one standing
And I tasted your tears
Now you drown in your sorrow, and I'll just disappear.

If I stay here with you, the only thing that I'll lose is me.
So I gotta let go, I gotta let go.
If I stay here with you the only thing that I'll lose
Is me so I gotta let go...

I don't wanna be here
So I will move on, I'll be the last one standing
And I tasted your tears
And now you drown in your sorrow, and I'll just disappear.

Don't wanna be here.
So I'll just disappear.
I'm done I won't come back.
I'm gone I'm never coming back. So I'll just disappear.
