Everybody knows my business in this town Lips are loose the whole way 'round Where I go I leave a trail Hell to heaven don't never fail Hell to heaven don't never fail

Everybody knows my movement in this town I chase my tail, yea I'm a fuckin' clown But to you I dare not speak My words to you would be worthless an weak My words to you would be worthless an weak an all

But don't you take no pleasure I ain't yet kicked the pail

I guess I see you boys later I saw you see me when I'm down An my guilty head you we're aimin' See me in your eyes an I am dead See me in your eyes an I am dead

But don't you take no pleasure I ain't yet kicked the pail
