I ain't afraid of your laughin' Nor afraid of your fist Come on with it brother your sweet betrayal kiss

I ain't a scared of you no more Nor the scars upon your wrists These bullets you've been shootin' at me Yeah, they all fall short an miss Yea yo ... oh brother

Get your boots on boy an get on out An make your leavin' quick This shack you built is on my land An it's comin' down brick by brick Yea yo ... oh brother

Oh there's a, oh there's a willow

Oh my darlin' oh my girl Again I've made you cry I got a mean man in me Yeah, I guess that's why Get oh ... oh brother
