When they poured across the border I was cautioned to surrender, This I could not do; I took my gun and vanished.

I have changed my name so often, I've lost my wife and children But I have many friends, And some of them are with me.

An old woman gave us shelter, Kept us hidden in the garret, Then the soldiers came; She died without a whisper.

There were three of us this morning I'm the only one this evening But I must go on;
The frontiers are my prison.

Oh, the wind, the wind is blowing, Through the graves the wind is blowing, Freedom soon will come; Then we'll come from the shadows.

Les Allemands étaient chez moi, Ils me dirent, "Résigne toi," Mais je n'ai pas peur; J'ai repris mon âme.

[The Germans were at my home They said, "Sign yourself," But I am not afraid I have retaken my soul.]

J'ai changé cent fois de nom, J'ai perdu femme et enfants Mais j'ai tant d'amis; J'ai la France entière.

[I've changed names a hundred times
I have lost wife and children
But I have so many friends
I have all of France]

Un vieil homme dans un grenier Pour la nuit nous a caché, Les Allemands l'ont pris; Il est mort sans surprise.

[An old man, in an attic Hid us for the night The Germans captured him He died without surprise.]

Oh, the wind, the wind is blowing, Through the graves the wind is blowing, Freedom soon will come;
Then we'll come from the shadows.
