

I can't wait until that magical moment
When I watch this fucking town burn down

You'll never be anything
Weakness and insecurity
Destined for fucking failure
Scared of this reality
Why?

Please somebody shoot me
Put me out of my misery
Please expire
Hatred burns through my veins
It's not just you
It's humanity

Break down and cry
I don't remember why
Peeled back of everything
Life's frustration and decay
Terrified of everybody
Now I must destroy you
Why?

Please somebody shoot me
Put me out of my misery
Please expire
Hatred burns through my veins
It's not just you
It's humanity

Break down and cry
I wish you'd fucking die
