

You'll Never Know

1927

Thinking about you oh so much
I'm losing peace of mind
Scared there'd be a treasure lost all of the time
Whispering voices deep inside
Crying to be heard
Telling me to take the risk of love until it hurts
And baby
You'll never know
Know which choice to make
Take or break a hold
Which way to go
Say what you will

What your willing to give
Give or take control
Will we ever know
Standing on a corner
Like a victim of a crime
You nearly passed me by
Then you said you'd had your share of lies
And make believe
Now all you want from me is some kind of guarantee
Chorus
You'll never know for sure
You spend all your life keeping score
Still never know
