

Grown Up

2 Skinnee J's

she's engaged to an industry man got an old red controlled and a brand new sedan im on hold with Con Edison the space heater went dead again

She played the cop,i played the martyr she got the rock,i rocked the party she got the credit,and i got carded i have hardly grown up since you met me i might never grow up if you let me and if i had to do it all over,well i'd do it again i'd come runnin' right back to all the trouble im in because i have hardly grown up since you met me i never learn but i like to pretend cuz i got lots of company in my circle of friends she never calls but she never forgets she's got a secret tatoo with my home adress she told the truth,i told a story she got the goods,i got the glory she's never wrong and i'm never sorry

(chorus)

sometimes i wish i could be more like you are and sometime you wishe you could be more like me you got that look in your eye and that kick in your teeth you got the answer on the tip of your tounge you got an itchy trigger finger and your pointin' at me with the barrel of a loaded gun wow!

(instrumental break)

she's gone away and she'll never return cuz' i never met a bridge that i couldn't burn

(chorus)
