

Sheltered from the pain
Protected in the everyday
Its bound to catch you soon
You're in the last few moments of a kinder reality

96 to 4 they told us
Won't make a fraction of a difference now
96 to 4 you'll be the last to know
Its gone down to a stone cold zero

On the other side
And till you cross that line
These thoughts weigh heavy on my mind
I picture you smile & I'm sick to the stomach when I think of you finding out

96 to 4 they told us
Won't make a fraction of a difference now
96 to 4 you'll be the last to know
Its gone down to a stone cold zero

Till you find out
Till you find out
I'll carry this weight
Till you find out
I'll carry your pain

96 to 4 they told us
Won't make a fraction of a difference now
96 to 4 you'll be the last to know
Its gone down to a stone cold zero
