

It's a joy in the life of being me
Social changes
The blackest dust can cover their eyes so they can't see
Social stages
The children modify their own monopoly
Social changes
The KKK wants their own STV
Social places

You must understand that I'm made this way
Don't give a damn if you can't change
Your little narrow mind today

I can't wait for the changes
You can't understand my rage
This thing's going on too long
I can't understand it
Social plague now

2000 strong, they back up white supremacy and I can't take it
I can't take it
Can't prove a thing, one day they'll see
That I'm staying

Within this shell there lies a menace to the core
We can't change it
That's the day when there be no more
Social changes
