

To you friendship means nothing.
Use us to get your message across.
And now you're looking out for you and yourself.
And that's not what's it's all about.
Next level gonna eat you up.
Next level don't give a fuck about you or your message.
Next level hardcore the one true thing that gave me hope in this life
Next level takes away the fun.
Next level turns it into nothing.
Next level is the enemy.
Next level is the enemy.
Next level takes away the fun.
Next level turns it into nothing cause.
When it's done by those who don't care.
It's meaningless and it'll disappear.
Next level is the enemy.
Next level is the enemy cause.
When it's done by those who don't care.
It's meaningless and it'll disappear.
Keep it alive and keep it real from my heart until I fuckin die
You'll never know what it means to me without hardcore.
Where would I be the one thing in life that ever gave hope.
Thanks to the bands and those lyrics for always being there.
Guiding me helping me through.
Hardcore the one thing that gave me hope.
The thing that gave me hope.
The only thing that gave me hope.
Next level takes away the fun.
Next level turns it into nothing.
Cause when it's done by those who don't care.
It's meaningless and it'll disappear.
Next level is the enemy.
