

Here we go now

They tried to tell you, they made it obvious
When daddy made it so easy.
But now they got him, its got me thinking about it
One, Two, Three, FUCK OFF!

Oh won't you tell me
You know its side tracked from them here
That there is more that meets the eye
And they can tell me this world is safe and this kind of evil bullshit
They think your stupid stupid, we're not so stupid

I'm thinking of running, for this year presidency
It shouldn't be too hard, I've got no diplomacy
Skills I won't need them, function all our literacy
Get along little doggy, get along president Jimmy

Oh won't you tell me
You know its side tracked from them here
That there is more that meets the eye
And they can tell me this world is safe and this kind
of evil bullshit
They think your stupid stupid, we're not so stupid

And I tell you that the truth
It scares the shit out of me
An it almost makes me miss
The comfort of the ???

An it almost made me think
It's getting scary

I'm thinking of running
For that there presidency
It doesn't seem too hard
With the help of my family
And we'll fix it up with a little criminal activity
You can't stop me, I'm running for the presidency

Do you believe in democracy, democracy?

Yowsers

Beware the photograph, it captures your dreams
